GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS DAGENHART AND SEMANS TO EXECUTIVE MANSION FINE ARTS COMMITTEE

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Sarah P. Dagenhart of Charlotte and Mary Semans of Durham to the Executive Mansion Fine Arts Committee.

Dagenhart received her Bachelor's degree in English from Agnes Scott College in Atlanta, Georgia.

Semans is trustee chairman emerita at the Duke Endowment in Charlotte. She earned her Bachelor's degree in history from Duke University.

The committee provides advice on the preservation of the Executive Mansion and encourages gifts and public support for this purpose. The committee has 19 members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints 16 members. The secretary of the Department of Cultural Resources and representatives from the department and the N.C. Museum of Art also serve on the committee.
